Summary

I'm a Web Developer and DevOps Engineer with 3 years of experience building and maintaining the technical systems behind apps and websites, making sure updates go live safely and servers stay protected from online threats. My background is mostly freelance work, so I'm used to solving problems on my own rather than following a fixed process. I've also worked hands-on with blockchain, including running cryptocurrency network nodes in the past to understand how they actually work. Blockchain technology is still new and evolving, and it's an area I'm genuinely interested in being part of building.
